

HOTTER TEMPERATURES OF GLOBAL SURFACE

Listed below are some situations for you to consider. Once you have read an item, please select an answer to indicate your level of agreement with that item (1 // Strongly Disagree, 2 // Disagree, 3 // Neutral, 4 // Agree, 5 // Strongly Agree).

This form aims to assess the impact of climate studies on the development of character qualities in students. We believe climate studies provide vital knowledge about our environment and can shape the character, values, and behaviors of individuals, ultimately fostering a more sustainable and resilient future.

There are no right or wrong answers, and we encourage you to share your honest opinions and experiences.

Statement	Strongly Disagree	Disagree	Neutral	Agree	Strongly Agree
Cooling down during hot days feels good.
I am aware of the importance of reducing global and local temperatures and their effect on my surroundings.
Hot temperatures in urban areas due to concrete surfaces and the lack of green spaces in my environment affects my feelings and emotions.
I can easily find words to describe my feelings when I am hot.
I can briefly explain how Urban Heat Islands affect my life.
I would work to increase green areas and natural surfaces around me, even if I was criticized or ridiculed by those around me for doing so.
Doing the right thing in reducing urban temperatures is extremely important to me.

I would have no problem contacting public authorities (mayor, health officer, conservationists) and asking them questions about urban planning to decrease local temperatures.
I am able to speak publicly about my views because in this way I can motivate others to help change our surroundings for the better.
Despite rejection from those around me, I would be able to persevere in my efforts to increase shaded areas and natural surfaces in my area.
I believe that my efforts to decrease urban temperatures would make a difference.
I would be able to promote any action aimed at increasing green spaces and natural surfaces around me, even if sometimes I don't feel like it.
I would be proud to do something aimed at changing urban planning.
It is essential for me to have up-to-date information on local temperature differences due to urbanization.
Even if I were to be the only one in my surroundings, I would contribute to planning public spaces to decrease temperatures in my area more effectively.
I like to learn new things, even if they are unfamiliar to me.
I can think for a long time and look for the necessary information to solve a problem.
I like to listen to other people's opinions and discuss with them, even if I don't always agree with them.
I'm interested in how someone else solved a similar problem.
I think about other options before I choose a solution.

I can be an example for others.
I try to look for ways to improve what we do.
I treat others with dignity and respect their opinions and motivations.
I can explain the reasoning behind my decisions.
I support cooperation and ensure that everyone in a team wants to achieve a common goal.
I feel motivated to help the environment in my spare time.
I feel responsible not only for myself but also for others and the environment.
If I see irresponsible behavior, I try to address it.
I can change my views and behavior if it helps the environment.
I can assess how my actions affect the environment and my community.

Funded by the European Union – NextGenerationEU. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or European Commission. Neither the European Union nor the European Commission can be held responsible for them.

Co-funded by the European Union

TEACHING GREEN - From Climate Change Education and Awareness to Citizen Science Action
Contract Number: 2021-1-SK01-KA220-SCH-000032754
Co-funded by the European Union